

Intro/Abstract

The colonial weight

“As if it is ever easy, And these days it is worse, with the poverty of blackness on one side and the weight of womanhood on the other”

Nyasha, Oh Starving!

“They do not like my language , my English, because it is authentic and my Shona, because it is not!”

Nyasha’s interaction with colonialism

Nyasha is deeply aware of how colonialism affects her life. She uses food as a metaphor since she has ”tasted” what it feels like to not be in Africa. “Nyasha tucked into the vegetables with the rest of us. When my mother offered her the sour milk she had asked for, she became very morose. She refused to eat”

Her Relation to food

Her relation to education

Tambu forces food down

Tambu’s interaction with colonialism

Her Relation to food

Her relation to education

Lucia, a middle ground?

Lucias interaction with colonialism

Her Relation to food

Her Relation to education